Andrew Millington's career in Cathedral music covers some 40 years, most recently as Director of Music at Exeter Cathedral where his work with the Cathedral Choir included several broadcasts and recordings and highly successful tours of Russia, France, Norway and USA. He has been awarded honorary diplomas by the Guild of Church Musicians and the Royal School of Church Music. He is well known as a solo organist and maintains a busy schedule of recitals. He has played many solo recitals on BBC Radio 3, mostly on the organ of Gloucester Cathedral. He has made CD recordings on a variety of organs, including the historic Hill organ in Kidderminster Town Hall, Wymondham Abbey and Exeter Cathedral. He has played in most of the major venues in the UK, and in 1995 was organist at the Festival of Remembrance in the Royal Albert Hall.
